iii.	Godavari Combined Cycle Gas Turbine	208	45.8

(c) Does not arise in view of reply (b) above.

(d) and (e) No, Sir. However, the reasons for a large number of the sanctioned projects failing to come up is on account of the private promoters not being able to tie up various inputs/ linkages and achieve financial closure. The Government has been monitoring the progress of these projects from time to time through periodical meetings with the private promoters, concerned State Government/State Electricity Boards, Central Electricity Authority and the concerned Ministries/ Department of the Government of India and providing assistance to them in obtaining necessary inputs/ clearances.

Financial Assistance for Rural Electrification

4390. SHRI G. PRATHAPA REDDY: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the details of financial assistance provided to States for rural electrification, with a view to utilise ground water resources through energisation of pumpsets during the last three years, State-wise;

(b) the number of villages in Andhra Pradesh covered under this programme and the number of pumpsets energised as a result thereof; and

(c) the quantum of assistance proposed to be given to States, for these schemes during the current year, State-wise?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF POWER (DR. S. VENUGOPALACHARI): (a) No separate allocation of funds is made for pumpsets energisation. However, the State-wise funds disbursed by the Rural Electrification Corporation during the last three years for rural electrification including village electrification, pumpset energisation and load intensification, etc. are given in the enclosed Statment-I (See below)

(b) In March, 1990, Andhra Pradesh declared its villages as cent percent electrified. As regards energisation of pumpsets, during the last three years, upto November 1996, 2,32,061 pumpsets have been energised in Andhra Pradesh.

(c) Rural Electrification Corporation (REC) has proposed an outlay of Rs. 775 crores for the financial year 1997-98. State-wise details are given at Statement-II (See below).
